The Anti-Ragging Committee met at the Principal's Office on 24th June 2022 at 10.30 pm. to discuss about issues if any pertaining to ragging. The meeting started with a silent prayer and the Principal, Dr. S. Chamundeswari, welcomed all the members present for the meeting.

The Principal addressed that the Committee meets to ensure that there is no ragging incidents within the campus and in the area surrounding the campus. The Principal placed on record her appreciation to Mrs. M. Vijaya, Police Administration Representative for coordinating with the Women Police Station, Ice House Police Station to ensure security measures keeping in mind the security of both School and College students.

The Student representatives expressed their utmost satisfaction of the measures taken by the College to maintain a Ragging Free Campus and thanked the Principal for organizing the Stakeholder Talk Session for creating awareness of the Institutional Policy Guidelines for Anti-Ragging on 23rd December 2021 by Ms. P. Vanitha, Research Scholar.

They thanked the Women Police, ICE House Police Station for all their support outside the campus to protect both School and College students from being ragged by other college students and men in the community.

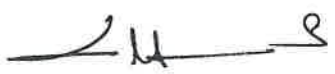

The Police Representative discussed procedures for lodging complaints when ragging is witnessed inside or outside the campus and encouraged students to play a responsible role in protecting school children and to create awareness about ragging and other safety measures.

The Principal requested additional awareness programmes by the Police Department at the NKT campus for the benefit of all School and College students.

The Principal brought to the notice of all members the measures taken by the College to prevent ragging both at the College and the Hostel and thereby creating a very safe environment.

The meeting came to an end with a note of thanks.
